ANNOUNCEMENTS

The ASPIRE module "Summer Intensive for Entrepreneurship and Commercialization" has extended the deadline for applications, now due May 28.

Vanderbilt is transitioning our research funding opportunity database from ProQuest Pivot to InfoEd Global SPIN. Your access to Pivot will end on June 30, 2018. Any saved searches you have in Pivot must be recreated in SPIN prior to this date. Learn more here.

The Insight Data Fellows Programs are tuition-free fellowships for graduating students, PhDs, and postdocs looking to transition to careers in fields like data science, data engineering, artificial intelligence, and many others. Early applications are due today, May 14!

Each year, Science Careers creates a handbook of career-related information for graduate students and postdocs. This year, the group has worked with organizations to provide profiles of company culture and the types of positions they have available. Download the 2018 guide here.
