Welcome new BRET graduate students!

This is your first of many BRET Office of Career Development newsletters to inform you of career-related events, announcements, and job postings. (Despite the Labor Day holiday, newsletters are usually published every other Monday!) To explore our further offerings, visit the BRET Office of Career Development website, as well as the ASPIRE Program page.

Feel free to email bret.career.development@vanderbilt.edu with any questions.
Upcoming BRET Opportunities

ASPIRE Externship: Federal STEM Policy & Advocacy: An Inside the Beltway Look
This two-day event will provide Vanderbilt University students and postdoctoral fellows in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) an opportunity to learn how federal STEM policy is made and the role of advocacy by various stakeholders in achieving policy goals.

Application deadline: September 10

PhD Career Connections: Management Consulting with Laura Terry, PhD
Friday, September 12, 9-10am, 214 Light Hall
Kick off the 2014-2015 PhD Career Connections series with alumna Laura Terry, Associate with McKinsey & Co. Small-group informational sessions are available later that day with Dr. Terry, but you must register for the morning seminar in order to learn more.

Registration requested.

Postdoctoral ASPIRE Café for Career Planning
Calling all Postdoctoral Fellows! Come learn more about how you can get involved in the new Vanderbilt ASPIRE Program offered through the BRET Office of Career Development at one of our bi-monthly sessions. Find out about professional development activities available to you.
Led by Dr. Ashley Brady
First meeting: Thursday, September 11, 9:00am, 350 Light Hall

ASPIRE to Plan
ASPIRE to Plan will empower biomedical sciences PhD students and postdoctoral fellows to make effective career decisions and identify specific training opportunities related to their career goals. It consists of four interactive seminars emphasizing self-assessment, career options for scientists, and career planning. Ideal for 2nd and 3rd year graduate students!
4 sessions (November 4 and 11, December 2 and 9)
Led by Dr. Kim Petrie

Application deadline: September 15

Writing F31 and F32 NRSA Grants Seminar (2-part)
Sponsored by the Chemical Biology Interface Training Program
Part 1: September 26, 1:30pm, 214 Light Hall
Kim Petrie, PhD, will discuss the nuts and bolts of grant writing, including what makes NIH fellowships different from research grants, application components, evaluation criteria, and institutional resources to help with your grant writing.

Part 2: October 10, 1:00 pm, 214 Light Hall
Panelists will include students who have received F31 fellowships and faculty who have participated in the review panels. A grants administrator will also be on hand to answer any specific questions you may have.
