SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

ASPIRE is offering an exciting workshop this month: "Creating Effective Scientific Talks and Delivering them with Confidence," led by Kathy Gould, PhD. Held on October 21 at 2p, this workshop will provide basic instruction in strategies of engaging your audiences with maximally effective slide preparation and speaking techniques. Practice opportunities will also be made available with critical but supportive feedback. Registration is requested.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Applications for the ASPIRE Module: EQ+IQ=Career Success are due TODAY! Led by Kate Stuart, Assistant Director, BRET Office of Career Development ASPIRE Program, this module covers it all: Conflict resolution, understanding person growth, Strengths Finder 2.0 Assessment, and more!

The ASPIRE Program is excited to welcome PRIME, Inc for a virtual employer information session on Monday, October 25, at noon. Come learn about PRIME, about a career path in medical education, and about PRIME’s PhD Student Fellowship Program.

Registration is now open for the 15th Annual VPA Symposium, which will be held in-person, at the Student Life Center, on November 1st! This one-day symposium will provide an opportunity for postdocs to network, engage in scientific discussions, and hear about the amazing research being conducted by fellow postdoctoral scholars.

The next Vanderbilt Women’s Center Women in the Academy Series session will be held on October 19. Dr. Maureen Gannon will discuss Negotiating your First Academic Job.

This week on October 14, attend the Vanderbilt Career Center’s session on What to Expect when Applying for Non Academic Jobs. Learn the process, timeline, and professional documents necessary to be a confident and knowledgeable applicant.

Vanderbilt's English Language Center is offering Postdoc Workshops this Fall on October 22 and December 10. Both sessions are the same, focusing on Strategies for effectively communicating with your advisor or mentor, resources for balancing productivity and mental health while managing postdoc responsibilities, and general tips for making the most of your postdoc years.

The Graduate Leadership Institute will be featuring a workshop on October 28 The art of Negotiation Learn the dominant approaches to negotiation and their differences/trade-offs, understand power in negotiation and gain some insight into your negotiation tendencies, strengths, and weaknesses.

The next meeting of the Center for Student Wellbeing Writers’ Accountability Group will be October 21. Come support fellow graduate and professional students through the writing process. Share your goals and keep each other accountable.

The next Academic Life Coach and UCC Peak Performance Series session is on October 15, discussing Motivation, Mindset & Effective Goal Setting. Each session of this series will cover theory and research on the topic and provide a space for attendees to discuss their related experiences and to gain support and consultation.

Applications are now open for the AAAS Mass Media Science & Engineering Fellows Program. Through this program AAAS aims to strengthen the community of scientists who are well-versed in communicating complex ideas to a general audience and to bring science stories to the public.

At the Career Blitz 24+ PhD-trained scientists from more than a dozen different career tracks will be on hand in a casual setting to answer your questions about what they do, how they navigated their career paths, and how you can follow in their footsteps. Each scientist, or pair of scientists with similar careers, will briefly describe their career and then answer questions from individuals interested in networking.
