SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

ASPIRE is microcredentialing!
The ASPIRE Program is now awarding badges through Badgr to graduate students and postdoctoral fellows who fully complete any of our ASPIRE modules. We will be back issuing badges to trainees in participated in an ASPIRE Module in the 2020-2021 academic year. This micro-credentialing program will continue to grow in the coming months. For more information check out our webpage!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

International Student and Scholar Services is hosting a webinar on November 6 at 5:30PM. Immigration Attorney, Davis Ware, will talk about "Self-Petitioned Pathways to Permanent Residency."

The Margaret Cuninggim Women’s Center invites you to attend the AAUW Start Smart Salary Negotiation Workshop. Held on November 9 at 4:00pm, via Zoom.

The Career Center's Career Development Series for Graduate Students and Postdocs next session will be "Career Connections: Alumni Perspective on Navigating the Job Search (STEM)." Hear from PhDs and postdocs and how they negotiated the twists and turns of their job search. November 12 at 12:00pm.

The next Academic Life Coach and UCC Peak Performance Series will be on November 12, via Zoom. They will be discussing "Finding a Work-Life Balance."

The last Vanderbilt Women’s Center Women in the Academy Series session for fall will be held on November 17, with "A Conversation on Mentoring."

The Graduate Leadership Institute will be conducting a workshop on November 18 at 10:00AM via Zoom. During this workshop participants will explore the Four Frames of Leadership, a model that embraces the contextual nature of leadership. Space is limited and registration is required.
Applications are being accepted for the Graduate Leadership Institute Dissertation Enhancement Grants. Deadline is November 22. These awards provide up to $2000 for research expenses related to student’s dissertation.

Vanderbilt's English Language Center is offering a Postdoc Workshop this Fall on December 10. The session will focus on strategies for effectively communicating with your advisor or mentor, resources for balancing productivity and mental health while managing postdoc responsibilities, and general tips for making the most of your postdoc years.

The Innovative Postdoctoral Entrepreneurial Research Fellowship (IPERF) program is still looking to fill up to 14 postdoctoral awards through the end of February 2022 at high-tech startups distributed throughout the United States. Fellows serve a one-year research appointment within a small business research enterprise funded by NSF.

The Amgen Grad Intern-Commercial Insights Leadership Program is accepting applications for Summer 2022! During this 12-week program, you will gain one of a kind hands-on experience to building a solid foundation for a career in the biopharmaceutical industry.

Applications for the 2022-2023 White House Fellowship are open, and the application deadline is January 7, 2022. The program was established in 1964 and serves to provide U.S. citizens an opportunity to work full-time with members of the cabinet, senior White House staff, and other leaders at federal agencies.

The California Council on Science and Technology (CCST) Science and Technology Policy Fellowship will be accepting applications starting December 1. The program is designed to enable Fellows to work hands-on with policymakers in addressing complex scientific issues as well as assume all the other legislative responsibilities of full-time legislative staffers.

The Vanderbilt University Office of Federal Relations (OFR) offers a summer internship each year; as we gear up for the next cycle of applications, we’ll be hosting two virtual information sessions via zoom: November 11 & November 15.

The Broad Institute of MIT and Harvard is offering a part-time winter science communications internship. This paid internship, based in the Office of Communications, is designed to provide the intern with a comprehensive, mentored experience that touches on many of the major activities of a communications department in an academic research institution.
