ANNOUNCEMENTS

The ASPIRE Program along with the Office of Career Development is excited to announce the launch of ASPIRE Internships. Today's and future newsletters will feature Internship and Externship opportunities in their own section. Please scroll down to see the 5 opportunities currently open.

PhD Career Connections are back! Learn more about the next three:

- Global Advocacy (Wed, Sept 9)
- Science Careers through Networking (Thurs, Sept 24)
- Philanthropy and Science (Tues, Nov 17, more info TBA)

Join the inaugural meeting of Vanderbilt's STEM Pedagogy Journal Club- a student-driven initiative for graduate students and postdocs interested in teaching science at the undergraduate level. They will discuss teaching theory, teaching techniques, and the latest in research on science education. No previous teaching experience needed, just an interest to learn!

The ASPIRE Module: Introduction to Principles and Practice of Clinical Research \(IPPCR\) is the only module still open. Read more and register your interest through September.

Are you an alumnus who still receives this newsletter? (We're so glad you're reading!) You too can register for the ASPIRE Module: Introductions to Principles and Practice of Clinical Research \(IPPCR\).

As a free service, the Vanderbilt Editors' Club is calling for submissions of scientific documents that are currently in preparation by graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, or VUMC faculty.

The Vanderbilt University Graduate Education Study Group as well as faculty and administrators are requesting the participation of graduate students in the Investment in VU Graduate Education forum on October 14. Please consider attending.

Life Science Tennessee invites students and postdocs to attend the 2015 Annual Conference and Venture Forum for free by submitting and presenting a poster at the conference. The poster session will be Tuesday Sept 29 from 5:30 - 7pm. Learn more here.

If you are interested in joining Life Science Tennessee Academic Alliance \(LST-AA\), a general interest meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 2 at 6pm.

Supporting Team Science at Vanderbilt will take place Friday, Sept. 25, in Light Hall.

The Jean and Alexander Heard Library will be hosting a Scholarly Communications workshop series that may be of interest to graduate students and postdocs.

The Tennessee Governor's Management Fellowship is a prestigious and highly competitive fellowship awarded to exceptional applicants who wish to serve and learn with the state of Tennessee's top executive leaders.

On December 14, 2015, the New York Academy of Sciences and PepsiCo will host a special Journey through Science Day at the Academy's headquarters in New York City.

SPOTLIGHT

Getting the Reply

You finally mustered up those "20 seconds of courage" as 2015 BRET Career Symposium keynote speaker Denise Bottiglieri encouraged you to do, and you have written a "cold" email to someone. Before you hit send, there are a few tips to keep in mind.

Wharton professor and book author Adam Grant tells LinkedIn his favorite, "6 Ways to Get Me to Email You Back" which are useful for job opportunities and informational interviews.

Additionally, this 2011 Chronicle of Higher Education piece, "The Art of 'the Ask'" still has some very helpful tips that can be applied today.

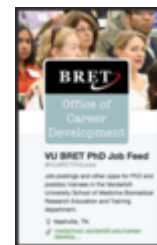

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

In an effort to simplify the information found on the often-updated Office of Career Development Blog, job postings can now be found on Twitter. Find a tutorial on this feature on our blog.

Follow us on Twitter!

@VUBRETPhdJobs

Do you have questions about this new feature? Don't hesitate to email Kate Stuart for more information. If you would like to advertise an open job or postdoc position in the BRET Office of Career Development newsletter, please post the opportunity through our webform or contact Kate Stuart. We welcome submissions from faculty, alumni, postdocs, students, and the community.
