ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME, NEW GRADUATE STUDENTS!

This is the first career development newsletter for new BRET graduate students... welcome to the family! This newsletter arrives every other Monday. We hope you will read it as well as the blog.

Join the discussion on the future of graduate education at Vanderbilt by attending the October 14 Investment in VU Graduate Education forum.

Attention 1st and 2nd year graduate students in Biological, Natural, and Social Sciences and Engineering: the Graduate School is hosting a workshop for students interested in or involved in the early stages of graduate study, in disciplines supported by the National Science Foundation (NSF).

ASPIRE Internships are here, and two teaching internships are still accepting applications.

The PEO Scholarship is now accepting applications for female US and Canadian resident doctoral students.

The Center for Technology Transfer and Commercialization at Vanderbilt University has a 13-week technology transfer internship that runs from Sept 7-Dec 4.

Postdocs: the ASPIRE Café for Postdoctoral Fellows will be hosting two career planning sessions in September:

- “Preparing for a Teaching Demo” with Cynthia Brame (9/22)
- “NIH Career Development awards” with Abby Brown (9/29)

During the month of September, the National Postdoctoral Association is offering annual memberships to individual postdoctoral fellows for the discounted rate of $10 (regular individual rate is $35).

Learn about the VZNIGHT Fellowship in Global Health Technologies.

The Programs for Talented Youth invites VU faculty and graduate students to propose courses for Summer Academy at Vanderbilt for the Young and Vanderbilt Summer Academy.

Interested in a career in science policy? A policy fellowship or internship is a great stepping stone to a career in this area. This blog post is a great list of opportunities.

Intern with Congressman Jim Cooper, US House of Representatives.

The 2016 AAAS Fellowship Program is now accepting applications. Learn more in an upcoming webinar.

Vanderbilt Student Volunteers for Science is a service organization in which Vanderbilt students go out in groups to teach middle school children in metro Nashville schools' science lessons. Learn more on how to volunteer.

The CIRTL MOOC is available now: “An Introduction to Evidence-Based Undergraduate STEM Teaching.”

INTERNSHIP & EXTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

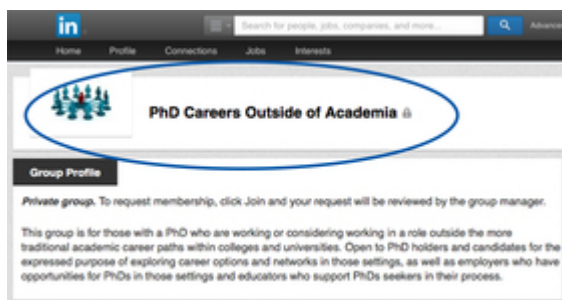

The ASPIRE Program along with the Office of Career Development is excited to announce the launch of ASPIRE Internships. Internships will be advertised on a rolling basis throughout the year, and applications are handled through SurveyMonkey.

- Teaching: Molecular Methods, Fisk University (due 9/20/15 *deadline extended)
- Teaching: Anatomy and Physiology I, Belmont University (due 9/20/15 *deadline extended)

For more information, including eligibility requirements, please visit the internship launch post.

SPOTLIGHT

Speaker Recommended LinkedIn Group

The BRET Office of Career Development was happy to host Gerry Ostheimer, PhD, Global Lead for Sustainable Bioenergy with the United Nations Sustainable Energy for All Initiative, last Wednesday for the PhD Career Connections kickoff seminar. Along with discussing about his role working in partnership with the United Nations, Gerry also recommended PhD students and postdocs join the LinkedIn Group, "PhD Careers

Outside of Academia." The discussion within the group is helpful, and the network within it is also a good resource. Thanks, Gerry!
